

I RISE TO REMARK

BY JOHN PHILLIPS

There is a saying that when you've seen one convention, you've seen them all. The Philadelphia Republican convention broke the rule. We probably had not realized our conventions had become matters of routine. We were like the football team of any college that was losing all its games. The players, as well as the spectators, were losing enthusiasm without realizing it. This year, there is the old convention spirit, from the milling people, both delegates and spectators, to the hawkers of buttons which say, "DEWEY or Don't We?" or "Bases Full, WARREN is Scoring." I haven't determined if the badge maker thinks Warren rhymes with Scoring, or not. Everyone is here, from the gold braid of the party to the inevitable cranks with solutions of all the problems of mankind. I even saw a young lady, dressed like an angel, complete with robe, crown and wings, and when I stopped out of curiosity, to see what that costume meant, she handed me a card advertising somebody's "Hamburger."

The best part for me has been to renew long-standing friendships. Men and women from the Legislature, and from all parts of California. It is nice not to be forgotten, in spite of six confining years in Washington. The 22nd District delegation is tops, and making a record. Gordon Richmond was put on the Platform Committee and we can thank him for the Tideland plank, and for putting in again the "recognition of the west" plank, which I wrote in four years ago. Mrs. Eastman also took immediate leadership in the delegation and the Riverside County alternate, Phil Boyd, threw in his Sacramento experience and contacts, which meant much in tight places. The Imperial Valley alternate, my own alternate of four years ago, Billy Burke, was unable to come at the last moment, and I'm wearing his badge and sitting on the floor with the delegation.

I rise to remark there is still need for better co-ordination between the State organizations and the Congressional delegation. It was not until after the convention was under way that the state strategists realized that most of the contacts they needed with other states could be made through Congressmen. We are the ones who know the men in other delegations, and they know us, and that introductory waste of time is avoided. Maybe having written a plank in the National Platform, for recognition of the west, there should be a plank in the State Platform, for recognition of Congress.

I was trying to hold off this letter until the votes had decided the nominees. That won't be possible. I may be able to mail a "postscript" later. The convention was in session until after four this morning, nominating the seven candidates whose names were submitted formally, and of course putting on demonstrations for the four leaders. The Warren demonstration was enthusiastic and genuine. The Dewey demonstration probably had more paid bands and marchers, and the Stassen demonstration also showed the money backing, plus a marked enthusiasm from a lot of youngsters who couldn't vote for him if he were nominated. The Taft demonstration was sincere and strong. As of this moment Dewey has the most votes among the delegates, but not enough; Taft comes next, Stassen third, and Warren fourth. We shall see what we shall see.

THIEVES TAKE ARTICLES OF VALUE FROM STANTON STORE

Merchandise valued at $436 was stolen from the Stanton Hardware store, 10615 Stanton boulevard, sometime during Friday night, according to a report made by William J. Morrhead, employed at the store. The owner, Elmer Koeppen, with his wife and family are on their vacation. Officers said that thieves had entered the rear door by prying it open with a two foot pry bar and had loaded the merchandise into a car or truck. Listed as missing were a washing machine valued at $139, three table model radios, two electric irons, one steam iron, one waffle iron, two toasters, one electric clock, 10 alarm clocks, 12 pocket watches and 10 wrist watches. Of 50 pennies left in the cash register, 47 were taken.

NEW RICHFIELD CORNER NEARS COMPLETION HERE

It has been announced that the new building being constructed at the corner of Miller road and Lincoln avenue will be a service station. The property has been leased for five years by Shipkey and Pearson and will feature Richfield gas and oils. The owner, Edward T. Behrens, who is responsible for the development, states that the project will be completed in about thirty days' time.

Name Celebration Committee Heads

Going forward with speed and alacrity are plans for the biggest and best "White Gold Days" celebration on September 18 ever held in Cypress. Dedicated by its title "White Gold" (milk) to this dairy community, the proceeds are to be added to the balance of the amount received last year in the interests of a recreation park fund. Purchase of the park site has already been made. Last December, a tract of land comprising eight acres, a house and water well was purchased on Crescent street between Walker and Moody streets from Nick Korales. Of the $12,000 total cost, an amount of $3,000 was paid down, with ten years in which to pay the balance. The total amount deposited in an Anaheim bank to the Cypress Chamber of Commerce park fund after the celebration last year was $3,924.38. There is in the bank to this account, at the present time, a balance of $924.38. With such a splendid motive in mind, that of providing a proper recreation center for the youth of the community, and the interest and cooperation being displayed by the various organized groups in Cypress, bigger and better plans are being made for this year's celebration.

Richard V. Hathcock, general chairman, announces that he has appointed chairmen for all of the major committees and all have accepted the responsibility. Work has been going along quietly and many evening hours are being spent on planning ways and means to make this a never-to-be-forgotten occasion. As details are worked down to fine points in committee, plans will be announced from week to week, so many pleasant surprises are in store as the various activities are made known.

Selected as co-chairmen to work with the general chairman are Frank Noe and Russell Flynn. The names of other committees and chairmen are as follows: parade, James Bryant; politics, C. W. Biggs; barbecue, Jake Van Dyke; carnival, T. J. Boyd; advertising, Earl Essex; ticket sales, Haskell A. Kelley; and chairman of a "contest" committee, the nature of which is being kept a secret, is Jerry Kelley. Publicity will be handled by Beth Kroesen, Mrs. Olive Williams and Bob Poor.

Holiday Stage Features Nursery For Matinees

Holiday Stage, has announced "Goodbye Again" as its second show of the year, opening July fifth for a one week run, in Scott and Haight's popular comedy, starring Oliver Cliff and Mary Finney.

MARY FINNEY

Harold Turney, executive director of the theatre on Highway 101, also announced the opening of a nursery on Saturday, July 10, catering to the children of patrons to allow them to attend the weekly matinees. Children from the ages of 2½ to 6 will be cared for in the garden of the theatre under the supervision of an experienced day-nursery teacher who will have a staff of young women to help her. This service, beginning the week-end of "Goodbye Again," will be extended to mothers with the compliments of Holiday Stage, allowing them to attend weekly matinees.

Mrs. Bouse, her daughter, Doris and son, Robert left on Saturday by train for an extended trip to Miller, South Dakota, where they will visit Mrs. Bouse's mother, Mrs. James Van Zee. Bouse is planning to drive east to bring his family home late in the summer.

Grocery Store Changes Hands In Cypress

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. (Jack) Fullerton have sold their grocery store and market at 5291 Lincoln avenue and are planning a well earned vacation trip to their home state of Texas.

The new owners of the store, who are taking possession today, are Glenn Penick and Mrs. Helen Kaliker. Penick is well known in Cypress having lived here with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Penick before entering the service. He is also the brother of Mrs. John Carsten, who was a Cypress resident for 16 years before moving to Monterey Park three months ago.

Fullerton is the president of the local chamber of commerce, the volunteer fire department and West Orange County Traffic Safety Committee, a unit of the county safety council.

This 'n That From Here 'n There

"Be alive on July sixth," was the appeal voiced today by the California Highway Patrol as another three-day holiday period.

"Since the Fourth falls on Sunday we know thousands will observe the following day," said Patrol Commissioner, Clifford E. Peterson. "Many persons who start out to celebrate the holiday won't come back if the accident toll of other holidays is repeated. If you must celebrate, don't do it where you can become a traffic accident victim." Peterson added that an available patrol strength was to be on duty.

The U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force, Recruiting Station, Room 109 City Hall, Fullerton, has received a supply of campaign medals for issue to army and Air Force personnel who served in the American, Asiatic Pacific or European Africa Middle Eastern Theaters during World War II.

According to T/S Sgt. George McGlumphy in charge of recruiting in this area, these medals can be obtained by calling at the Army and Air Force Recruiting Station. Original copy of the veterans discharge must be presented.

Speeds in excess of 100 miles an hour are predicted for the steep banked board track which will have its premiere at the Coliseum, Saturday night, July 10.

Workmen are busy building the eight-banked board saucer and will have it ready to move into the Coliseum as soon as the Legion winds up its July fourth festivities.

The gigantic track is built in sections and will be put together like a huge jigsaw puzzle. Promoter Bill White said yesterday that work was almost finished on the tunnel, which will bore under the board bowl, allowing the mighty midgets to get into the infield.

The Bureau of Milk Control, State Department of Agriculture, announced that temporary abandonment of the automatic pricing formula used by the bureau in setting minimum prices of milk in 27 marketing areas will result in the present minimum prices of milk remaining effective in all areas after July 1.

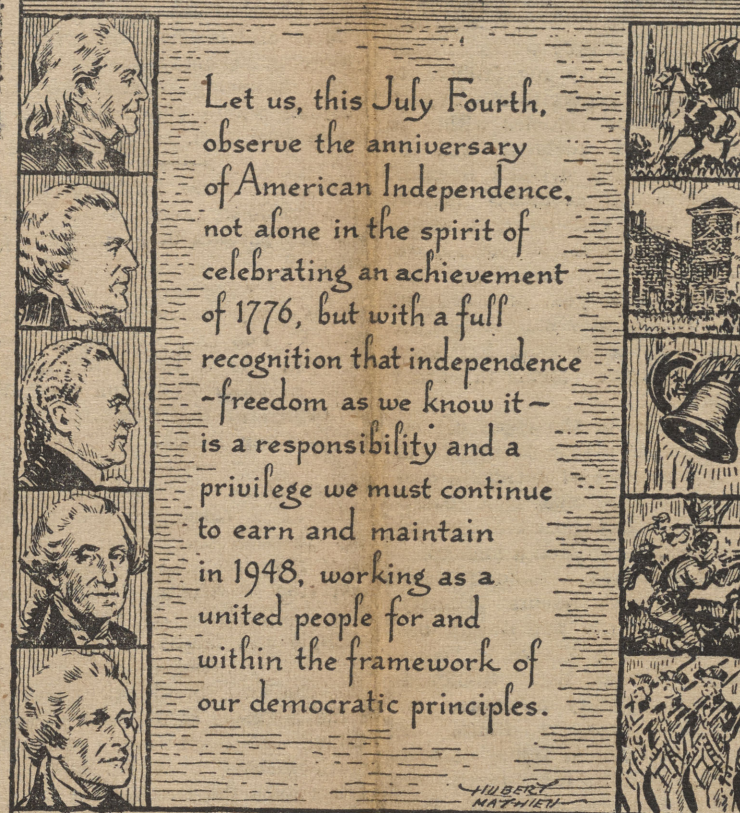

As of that date, there will be no increase in the minimum cost of milk to consumers.

Dairymen will continue to receive present prices from distributors.

FIRST RADIO WON IN SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE BY D. REED

The Enterprise said it was "cute and colossal" and free. It is a little radio and it only takes ten subscriptions to the newspaper to win it. The first to prove that it was easy—and fun—in Cypress was Danny Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reed. Danny was in the fifth grade last year in school, and his sales ability proves that you can't start too young. Congratulations Danny, to our former printer employee, Frank Vickery, who spent some time in Cypress while his broken finger was mending, received his just desserts in the role of happy bridegroom.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat INDEPENDENCE DAY

Let us, this July Fourth, observe the anniversary of American Independence, not alone in the spirit of celebrating an achievement of 1776, but with a full recognition that independence—freedom as we know it—is a responsibility and a privilege we must continue to earn and maintain in 1948, working as a united people for and within the framework of our democratic principles.

IT'S BEING SAID - - IN CYPRESS

That it is with regret that we are forced to announce the resignation of the president of the chamber of commerce the Cypress Volunteer Firemen's association, and the president of the West Orange County Safety Council. No, we won't be listing the names of three men, as you might suppose. Rather, we give you the name of one man doing three men's work. S. V. (Jack) Fullerton is the man. The Fullertons are no longer in business here, and Cypress will lose one of the town's most ardent supporters to the state of Texas, probably, if the family executes its present plans. We predict that Jack's leaving will sound the death knell for an organization in this community—one of the organizations you can least afford to be without—simply because pleas for attendance have fallen upon deaf ears. When Cypress gets a form of traffic control, which may save YOUR life, it won't be because of your chair readers like ourselves, but because of "doers," like Fullerton.

That Mrs. Madge Lyon has put in her bid to be classed among the drivers of the latest vehicles in town, along with the Cypress Cleaner's red truck and the yellow demon. She is painting the pick-up a green and cream combination of her own color scheme. We maintain that unless she puts a purple radiator on it, she's not in the running. Besides, it takes ingenuity to uphold the title, once you are in the championship division. We challenge all contenders to match the addition of the yellow hat (reversible with army olive drab) which we have the nerve to WEAR with any innovation they may choose as we defend our title! (Brother Paul somehow or other wound up his army career from the South Pacific with the chapeau as part of his gear. Can't imagine what a B-29 pilot needed with such loot.)

That you won't need to read this next paragraph, but we promised our family back home that if we could be relieved from the duty of writing letters, we'd mention something on the net every once in awhile just to let them know we still existed in a busy world. Besides, it was a beautiful double wedding, and the "champagne luncheon" and reception at the Green hotel in Pasadena Saturday which followed was more than the printed wedding invitation indicated. What a steak! The office force attended, practically en masse, to see that our former printer employee, Frank Vickery, who spent some time in Cypress while his broken finger was mending, received his just desserts in the role of happy bridegroom.

That the quiet spell has been broken. Sh-sh-sh! Yes it's Peterson's really, back from vacation. 'Nuf said.

It was also decided to accept the offer of Marion Preble for the group to meet in the dining room of his drive-in restaurant with the next meeting which is scheduled to take place on July eighth at 8:00 o'clock.

Steps were taken to order caps bearing the name and number of the post and membership pins. To raise funds, the unit will operate two fireworks stands: one at Walker and Lincoln avenue and the other on the parking lot of Ernie's Drive-in at Moody and Lincoln avenue.

Drawings Will Give 528 Farms To Veterans

Mr. Ben Lieberman, Director of Veterans Affairs of Orange County, announced today that 528 individual farm units in the west will be opened to veterans in the very near future for homesteading purposes.

Land to be distributed among veterans includes 86 farms in the Tule Lake Division of the Klamath project in California and Oregon; 16 farms in the Rosa Division of the Yakima project in Washington; 76 farms in the Yuma Mesa Division of the Gila project in Arizona; 40 farms in the Fayette Division of the Boise project in Idaho; 16 farms in the Gooding Division of the Minidoka project in Idaho; 77 farms in the Heart Mountain Division of the Shoshone project in Wyoming; and 210 farms in the Riverton Division, Wyoming project.

Veterans will have a 90 day preference for filing applications for 49,176 acres. In order to qualify, veteran applicants must have agricultural experience and must have adequate capital to work the land.

Farms to be opened on the seven projects will be awarded to veteran applicants at public drawings which will be held after public notices have been sent to those veterans whose names are on file with the Bureau of Reclamation.

Application forms and additional information will be supplied by the Orange County Veterans Service Center located at 225 North Broadway, Santa Ana, about August 1, 1948.

Mrs. Milam Williams plans to leave today on a two weeks' vacation to Eugene, Oregon, where she will visit friends. On the return trip she will stop in Santa Cruz to visit with her uncle, Albert W. Drew, and in Santa Maria for an overnight stay with the mother of her childhood chum, Mrs. Annie Morrison.

Quarter Horse Races Again At Vessels Ranch

A full afternoon of the Quarter Horse Races which have been attracting increasingly large crowds will again be held at Vessels Ranch, Los Alamitos, on Sunday, July 4th. Starting at 1 o'clock the program will include eight or ten of the short distance races which are proving so popular all over the country, as well as special events and musical entertainment.

Frank Vessel, owner of the 500 acre show place at Los Alamitos, has added grand stands to accommodate the crowds, since many of the spectators were forced to stand at the races held on May 2. Also used for the first time on July 4th will be the electrical timing device, the races having previously been timed manually by experienced timers. Vessel advises that manual timing will continue to be used to check the operation of the electrical timer and to be used in the event of a failure of the mechanical system to operate.

The meet at Vessels, Ranch will immediately follow the four day meeting being conducted at Del Mar June 28, 29, 30 and July 1st, in connection with the San Diego County Fair. The joint meeting is attracting many of the fastest Quarter Horses in the state and spectators are assured a full afternoon of representative races.

NOMINATE OFFICERS FOR ALAMITOS AUX

Nomination of officers for the ensuing year was the main item of business at Monday night's meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, with the election to take place at the meeting, July 14.

Nominated for the post of president were Elsie Oliver and Mrs. Dorothy Tischler; first vice-president, Lottie Little; second vice-president, Mae Plummer; secretary, Rose Marie Watts, Stella Reese and Bonny Rathburn; treasurer, Rose Marie Watts, Stella Reese and Dorothy Tischler; chaplain, Anabelle Badgett; historian, Lottie Little; sergeant at arms, Lois Gaylor and Marshall, Paxy Reynolds.

Report of the progress of the public bingo party which will be the unit on July 16, was made by Georgia Surley, chairman in charge. Tickets are now available. In addition to the usual bingo prizes, four valuable articles will be given away: a floor lamp, a wool blanket, a waffle iron and an electric alarm clock.

The birthday anniversary of Dorothy Tischler was honored with a gift from the auxiliary.

During the social hour they were joined by the members of the Legion and the auxiliary was taken to a care for refreshments as guests of the Legion.

CLUB MEMBERS HOST FAMILIES

Anaheim City park was the rendezvous at which members of the Junior Women's club, their husbands and families, gathered on goes with it. Later the group attended, and all the good things that Saturday night for a hamburger George Marshall and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Carl Beason and Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Anaheim and Whittier.

Ended the soft ball game between children, Susan and Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Norville Chapman and daughter, Jayne, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gaylor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christianson, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Miser and children, Shirley and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. John Lukens and children, Bobby and Suzanne and Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Paugh.

Fullerton Resigns As President Of Chamber

The regular meeting of the Cypress Chamber of Commerce was called to order Monday evening, June 28, by the president, S. V. (Jack) Fullerton in the school auditorium. A suggestion was read from a representative of a group in Westminster, to meet with it to discuss a plan which has been evolved with regard to the sanitation problem. It was decided to call an open meeting for the next scheduled chamber of commerce meeting which will be Monday evening, July 12. Other towns which are a part of the newly formed third district, Los Alamitos, Stanton, Harding, along with Cypress, will be extended invitation to be present and participate in the discussion. The present set-up known as the limited participation plan, calls for a 12 cent tax per $100 assessed valuation to build a trunk sewer from Ellis avenue to the ocean. The problem confronting local residents and others in this district is determine what course to follow in the matter of sewage disposal until such time as this construction will take place and a further plan is decided upon whereupon sewage will be pumped from these communities in district three to Ellis avenue. The 12 cents is simply insurance that eventually an outfall sewer will be provided from Ellis avenue to the ocean.

Because of the fact that Cypress does not yet have proper recreation facilities for its youngsters, it was the suggestion of Stan Doerr that perhaps arrangements could be made with the school board to use the school bus to transport children twice a week to Anaheim high school where they would be allowed free use of the plunge. Doerr was appointed to contact the school board in this matter and see if details could be worked out.

It was with regret that the members present heard Fullerton ask that his resignation as president be effective immediately. Since he has sold his business, and will be absent from Cypress in the near future, he deemed this action necessary. The members reluctantly accepted, and it was suggested Jack be given a vote of thanks for the fine work he has accomplished as president of the Chamber of Commerce. He handed the records and gavel to the vice-president, Stan Doerr, who becomes president for the remainder of the term.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The fourth day of July in 1776 was not just one day in our history—it was many days, many years, many struggles, many events, all leading to that great climax of the century—the Declaration of Independence.

The Declaration, then, did not mark the start of the fight for freedom but brought it into sharp focus. The fight had already been going on for decades in this country and for ages in other lands. It is still going on. True, the Colonists won their struggle for liberty. But succeeding generations have learned that each generation must win the struggle anew.

This effort does not always take the form of open warfare as it did in 1861 and 1941. More often it must be carried on through the implements of education to overcome intolerance, greed and fear—the deadly enemies of freedom.

In observing our Independence Day it is well that we contemplate not only the sacrifices and achievements of our heroes of history, but that we also earnestly consider the tasks ahead and the measures that will be necessary to preserve our form of government.

Let us remind our selves that freedom is everybody's job. And let us do that job with all our might. Nothing less is worthy of the men who founded our Nation and those who have defended it through the past century and a half.

...AND STILL CHAMPION!

Paper Lamp Shades Are Easy To Make

Pleated paper lamp shades are both fun and inexpensive to make at home. All it takes to turn out a trim looking new shade is an old wire shade frame, a strip of manila or fancy grade heavy paper, sharp edge ruler to crease the pleats, paste, stout cord, and a paper punch.

Professional results will depend on how carefully you fold and measure, so don't try to rush the job. First, cut the paper two and one-half times as long as the distance around the bottom of the frame and 3 inches wider than its height.

Now, carefully follow the steps illustrated above. (1) Fold strip of paper in half; open and fold in quarters. (2) Open and fold each quarter in half again. Continue this, always folding in same direction until folds are about 2 inches apart. (3) Now spread strip flat on table and turn in opposite side (4) and fold each 2-inch section in half. This last reversing of the folding direction will produce the accordion pleating. For crisp pleats be sure to crease all folds with the sharp edge of the ruler.

To mount it to the frame, mark off a distance 1 inch from the top on the back of each pleat and cut a half-moon hole on the edge of each crease with a paper punch. This forms a continuous groove which will fit over the top ring of the frame.

Now measure down 1½ inches from the top and punch a hole in the center of each pleat. Thread the cord through the holes and paste up the seam. Place the shade over the frame, fitting the top holes in the top ring and then draw the cord tightly and tie.

These pleated shades are so inexpensive that they can be replaced often; and according to General Electric home lighting specialists, it is important to keep shades clean so that they will reflect more light. Pleated shades are particularly good on small decorative lamps as they can be decorated with wallpaper cut-outs, decals or hand painted before pleating.

California Has New Law In Effect July 1

An estimated 250,000 California traffic accidents during the next 12 months will fall within provisions of the new Financial Responsibility Law which becomes operative July 1. Motor Vehicles Director A. H. Henderson said today.

"An accident must involve injury, death or damage of more than $100 to the property of any one person to be reportable," said Henderson.

"Under present price schedules for automotive repairs it isn't difficult to cause $100 worth of damage. The penalty for failure to make such a report to the Department of Motor Vehicles within 10 days after an accident will be suspension of driver's license."

Since most accidents involve two or more vehicles it is anticipated that at least 500,000 reports will be received under the law during its first year of operation.

Although a new statute in California, this same idea has been tried in various forms in other states.

In addition to the reporting requirement, a driver involved in one of the types of accidents covered by the law, must post security to cover any possible damage within 60 days of such a mishap.

Since standard automobile liability insurance meets security provisions of the act it has become erroneously known as "compulsory automobile liability insurance law." Standard automobile liability insurance is that which provides limits of $10,000 for death or injury of two persons, $5,000 for death or injury of one person in any one accident and $1,000 for property damage.

There is no compulsion to buy insurance, Henderson explained. A motor vehicle may be registered in the state without displaying evidence of insurance and it is not required in obtaining a driver's license.

In many other states the owner as well as the driver must demonstrate financial responsibility. But in California the only time the owner is held accountable under this law when he is not the driver is when the operator of his vehicle is physically incapable of reporting an accident to the Department of Motor Vehicles at Sacramento. In that case it becomes the responsibility of the owner to report as soon as he learns of the mishap.

Many other states have lower property damage levels than California's above which an accident must be reported. New York, for example, requires accidents involving only $25 or more to be reported while in many other states the minimum is $50.

California's law, also differs from those in many other states in that the driver of a vehicle that is legally stopped, standing or parked is not required to post security.

Henderson urged all motorists, both resident and non-resident, to obtain a copy of the State's Financial Responsibility folder and familiarize themselves with the law. These folders may be obtained from Police departments, service stations, California Highway Patrol offices, branch offices of the Department of Motor Vehicles and from insurance agents and brokers.

Only Financial Help Needed For Flood Refugees

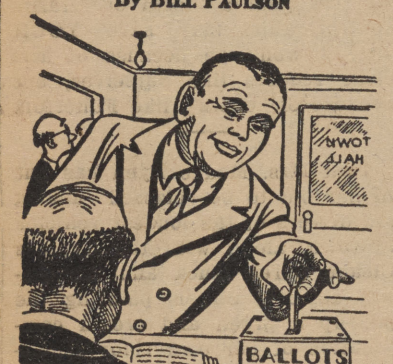

Offers to donate used clothing for relief of persons who have been affected by the Northwest floods are continuing to be received by the American Red Cross. There are no disaster clothing needs that are unmet in the affected states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana.

The Red Cross in its Disaster Relief work helps individuals and families to meet the needs which have occurred because of the disaster. In helping these individuals to regain their self-sufficiency the normal channels of business are used, and clothing, as well as household goods or other necessities are purchased locally. In the first few days of the disaster there was a need for use of bulk clothing, but that need has since passed.

Also, it is not possible for the Red Cross to use efficiently or economically in their feeding operations donations of bulk food.

Of course, the financial needs for the northwest disasters sufferers remain high and will rise, perhaps, because of the period of extended high water in the Northwest. Donations are being accepted at the local Red Cross chapter headquarters, 505 Chapman Building, Fullerton, California.

Glen Dysinger Takes Bride In Church Ceremony

One of the loveliest weddings of early summer took place in the First Methodist church when Miss Christine Veronika Von Gruenigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Von Gruenigan, 1224 Luanne avenue, of Fullerton, exchanged vows with Glen Dysinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Dysinger, 319 east Chapman avenue, also of Fullerton, in the presence of 400 friends and relatives.

The bride given in marriage by her parents, was a picture of loveliness in her gown of white satin as she stood at the beautifully appointed altar. Bridal sentiment was remembered in the handmade lace handkerchief which her mother had carried at her wedding.

Miss Willa Dysinger, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Alice Johannessen, Charlotte Varcoe, Janette Easton and Shirley Easton. Robert Bruns served as best man and ushering duties were assumed by Edward W. Ormsby, Richard Montgomery, Richard Peabody and Leo Plantoni.

Officiating clergymen were the Reverend J. Maxwell Chamberlin, pastor of the First Methodist church and Dr. Graham Hunter, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Fullerton. Dressed in surplices, two small boys, Warren Bulles and Charles Mathews, served as candle lighters. Mrs. Harold Nielsen played sentimental organ music and accompanied Ted Lescault when he sang.

Standing in the receiving line with the bride party in the vestibule of the church to greet the many guests were the parents of the couple, G. H. Dysinger, the groom's father, is principal at the Centralia Elementary school and the family is well known in this vicinity.

Assisting in serving at the reception which was held in the social hall of the church were the Misses Ada and Lucy Idso, Jo-deanne Collins, Maxine Runnels, Mrs. Carl Mathews, Mrs. Thomas Stowe and her aunt, Mrs. Paul Baxter.

The bride, who is prominent in musical circles, attended the University of Southern California and is a member of the YWCA, Wesley club and an educational sorority. Her husband is attending Santa Barbara State Teacher's college and is a member of the Alpha Phi Omega fraternity. After a two weeks' honeymoon at an undisclosed place, the couple will make their home in Santa Barbara, where both will attend college.
